Summarising Note.

Estates - Survey of ~~Un~~surveyed estates - Formation of Survey parties - Recruitment and training of men to form two more survey parties - Orders passed.

---

The Government have decided to abolish the Zamindari system in this Province by acquiring the interests of landholders and converting them into ryotwari. It will be necessary to survey the unsurveyed portions of the estates before they are converted into ryotwari. No survey parties are, however, working at present. ~~As~~ such new parties have to be formed, The Government therefore sanctioned the recruitment and training of 224 men as field surveyors by starting 8 schools consisting of 28 men each. They also sanctioned the training of 4 Head ~~o~~ Surveyors in survey work and 16 clerks in important items of clerical work in survey parties. The training of the first ~~lot~~ batch of surveyors is expected to be over by 15-4-1948. Meanwhile, the Board of Revenue proposed, among other things,

(1) that another batch of 224 men be trained in survey so as to form 2 more ~~survey~~ parties,

(2) that twelve more temporary Head Surveyors be recruited and trained in Survey work, and

(3) that one or two experienced Deputy Surveyors be posted to perambulate the areas and to prepare eye sketches showing the approximate positions of the villages and their boundaries. The Boards' Proposals involve an expenditure of Rs. 1,16,000 in 1948-1949. As this expenditure is not contemplated in the Budget for 1948-1949 and as the training of additional batch of surveyors etc has to commence on 15-4 the scheme has to be treated as a "new service" and the approval of the standing finance committee and the cabinet has to be obtained. As, however, the matter was urgent, orders were taken in circulation to the H.M.(Land Revenue), H.M.(Finance), and Hon'ble Premier for ~~want~~ waiving a reference to the Standing Finance Committee and the Cabinet and for sanctioning the proposals. Orders have accordingly been issued sanctioning the recruitment, training and the employment of the staff. Copies of this note may be submitted to all H.Mnisters except H.M.(Land Revenue), H.M.(Finance) and H.Premier and to the Chief Secretary and to the Finance department for informatio
